

We request the reopening of public comment based on the late filing of representatives of xo communication.
The Public should have the opportunity to make comments on the content of that filing.

Among other items the incompleteness of the Forstmann investor's chain of command & recent activity of Telmex on foreign involvement.

also some of the comments made previously are not down loading....
one of which is mine..Webster White...thanks